

OUR TOWN

VOLUME X, NUMBER 7

NARBERTH, PA., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1923

PRICE THREE CENTS

To Hear Lecture on World Court

Dr. Fenwick will Address Women Voters

The lecture on the World Court will be held under the auspices of the Narberth League of Women Voters on Friday evening, December 7, at 8.15 P. M., in the Y. M. C. A.

Arrangements have been completed to have Dr. Chas. G. Fenwick, Professor of Economics and Politics of Bryn Mawr College, talk on this topic. Every good citizen will want to avail himself or herself of this opportunity to hear discussed a subject that will be one of the chief absorbing topics before Congress in its coming session. Indeed, in the minds of many the most important.

Discussions from the floor will follow and an invitation is also extended to anyone having a perplexing question in mind relative to the World Court to mail the inquiry to Our Town before December 5.

Dr. Fenwick by virtue of his calling is especially well qualified to present this plan. Rumor has it that Dr. Fenwick will be one of the competitors for the Bok prize.

Several of Narberth's leading women have consented to act as patronesses. The price of admission is a nominal charge of 50 cents. Tickets will be on sale at the drug stores or may be procured from any member or officer of the League.

The fourth annual convention of the League of Women Voters, held in the Bellevue-Stratford from November 14-17, inclusive, had an able representation at nearly all sessions from the local branch.

The following attended the banquet on Wednesday evening: Miss Anna MacKeog, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Mrs. Triston B. Du Marais, Mrs. Carroll Downes, Mrs. Wm. B. Goodall, Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, Mrs. Harry Jacobs, Mrs. E. C. Cockrill, Miss Bird Roberts, Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. Lester Nickerson, Mrs. J. Meyer, and Mrs. C. P. Fowler.

OYEZ! OYEZ! OYEZ!

The secret over which the Cub Reporter has been nigh to bursting these past few weeks is now out. The "Juniors," whose past successes, "The Garden of the Shah," "Shame on Bunny," and "Green Stockings," are well remembered by Narberth audiences, are prepared to offer an evening which promises to surpass anything of the kind historic Elm Hall has ever staged.

This consists of a Novelty Minstrel Show, to be given Friday evening, December 14th. The Cub Reporter overheard some of the details of this affair and has resolved to be on the front row that evening, even if he has to "crash the gate." At the modest sum, however, for which this entertaining evening of wit, song, beauty, clever dancing and gorgeous costuming will be offered to those patrons of art who know a good thing when they see one, few will be forced to stay away for financial reasons.

Miss Augusta Witherow, who directed that highly successful musical comedy, "Shame on Bunny," for the Juniors last year, has charge of the performance, which is to be just what the advertisements state—a novelty. Not only has she arranged a minstrel which is unique and free from the worn out, cut-and-dried affairs which we have been led to believe constitute a minstrel, but her efforts have secured for us a galaxy of favorites fresh from vaudeville. A well trained and graceful dancing chorus of Narberth's fairest will be but one feature of the evening. The resulting varied program, on which neither time nor money will be spared, is sure to please both young and old.

Tickets, which will go on sale in the course of the next few days, may be secured from any Junior.

A BIG BANQUET.

The Neighborhood Club of Bala-Cynwyd is holding its annual banquet next Tuesday. Our neighbors of the twin cities know how to do things right, for present returns indicate that some 800 male beings will be on hand.

The affair will be held at Green Hill Farms Hotel, and several prominent speakers and singers have been secured. Several Narberth residents, members and friends of the Neighborhood Club, are among those signed up for the occasion.

Narberth Active In Main Line Music

Many Attend Melody Club Event Monday

Narberth supplied a goodly part of the audience which heard the interesting and instructive lecture-recital by Charleston Lewis Murphy, managing director of the Philadelphia Musical Academy, given under the auspices of the Melody Club of Ardmore last Monday.

The meeting was held in the Woman's Club building on Ardmore Avenue. Mrs. L. Wayne Army, of Merion Avenue, is chairman of the Program Committee, which secured Mr. Murphy for the occasion.

Mr. Murphy's lecture—or as he preferred to call it—talk dealt with the fascinating history of violins and their makers. He traced the history of stringed instruments from the first crude viol, through the viola to the violin piccolo, or, in English, the violin.

In telling of the beginnings of the fine violins, as made by the Cremona School, Mr. Murphy showed the audience the collection of instruments he had brought with him, borrowed from connoisseurs of Philadelphia and vicinity. There were fine examples of the work of the Amati family, Stradivarius, Guarnerius, the French and German makers, and some modern makes.

Many of the instruments in the collection, the value of which exceeded $150,000, had an interest apart from their rarity, having been the property and pride of world-famous fiddlers. There was the famous Wieniawski Guarnerius, played on by that artist and composer. Several of the instruments were the property of members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, one of the Amati violins, beautifully inlaid, being the property of Thaddeus Rich, Concertmeister of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

In order to show the difference in tone and quality of the different makes, Mr. Murphy rendered a pleasing program, each number on a different violin. Despite the difficulty of attaining perfect tone with so many shifts of instruments, his rendition of Saint Saens' beautiful Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso was masterful. The complete program was:

- (a) J. S. Bach (1685-1750) allegro and adagio from Sonata E minor
- (b) Corelli (1653-1713) adagio-allegretto
- (c) Tartini (1692-1770) largo-allegro commodo from Sonata G minor
- (a) Schubert-Franko Valse sentimentale
- (b) Sacchini-Franko Air de Dardanus
- (c) Mozart-Franko Pantomime from Petit Riens
- (d) Gossec-Franko Tambourin
3. Grieg Romance from Sonata op. 45 (Piano and Violin)
4. Saint Saens Introduction e rondo capriccioso

DINNER PLANNED.

The committee in charge, composed of Mrs. George N. Gill, Chairman, Mrs. Paul Loos, Mrs. James G. Foote, H. C. Fanno, and Owen Schmidt, have arranged a splendid program and dinner and are anticipating a large attendance. It is desired to have present everyone in Narberth who is interested in the Choral whether members or not, and an especial invitation is extended to the new comers in the community to attend the dinner and get acquainted with the Choral members. Reservations can be made by telephoning or writing Mrs. George N. Gill, 216 Dudley Avenue, phone Narberth 1821-J. Tickets will be $1.50 a cover.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM

Christian Science Society, of Ardmore, Pa., has recently opened a Public Reading Room in the Woolworth Building, 19 West Lancaster Avenue, Ardmore. The public is cordially invited to use this room for the reading of the Bible and authorized Christian Science literature. A library is maintained and the Bible and Christian Science literature may be purchased or renewed. The Reading Room is open daily except Sunday from 12.00 to 4.30 P. M.

School Notes

The Editors for the week are: John Havlick, Emily Hannum, Jack Foster, and Charles Liggett.

Mrs. Griscom, who addressed the school last May on the subject, "Migration of Birds," gave an illustrated talk on "Wild Flowers" Friday, November 16.

The pupils of the Junior High School received their reports several days ago. Mr. Wilson commented on the scarcity of honor students or students that received an average of 90 per cent. or over. He explained to the pupils that if they had poor marks it was their own fault and encouraged them to do better. The six students that were on the Honor Roll were: In the Ninth Grade, Ruth Caldwell, Elizabeth Walls, John Havlick, and Kitty Adams. In the Eighth Grade, Elma Reese. In the Seventh Grade, Ruth Hopkins.

The boys have a new football coach and gymnasium teacher in the place of Mr. Wheeler, who left last week. Mr. H. C. Gregg is the new coach. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Wisler, who is Chairman of the Junior Red Cross in this vicinity, expressed her thanks for the generous contribution made by the school last Wednesday. She told the school where the money was going to be used and it will certainly be used to great advantage.

On Wednesday, November 20, the Sixth A Section gave a play in the assembly to show some of the mistakes made in English. It was adapted from "Alice in Wonderland." The scene was at the trial. Instead of Wonderland the play was staged in Grammarland. For mistakes in grammar the penalty was having one's head chopped off. The play was well worked out, Miss Worth being in charge, and succeeded in getting the point across to the audience. Alice Monks was Alice, Randolph Kime the Rabbit, Mary Magee the Queen, Arthur Bailey the King, and George Albert the Executioner.

Miss Speakman is going to teach the pupils an operetta called "Hiawatha's Childhood."

The following books have recently been added to the school library: "The Forest Princess," Mackay. "The Story of Matka," Jordan. "Insect Adventures," Fabre. "The Land of the Head Hunters," Curtis.

"Old-Time Stories," Bowen. "New Voices," Wickinson. "Modern American Poetry," Undermeyer. "Erica," Martineau. "Adventures of Odysseus," Colum. "The Crescent Moon," Tagore. "Story of the Rhineland," Chapin. "The Golden Age," Grahame. "Golden Nymphs," Wiggins. "Boy Who Knew What the Birds Said," Colum. "Girl Who Sat by the Ashes," Colum. "Enchanted Forest," Bowen. "Rainbow Gold," Teasdale. "Tailor of the Winding Way," Crownfield.

On Monday, November 26, the football team plays Montgomery Day School at Montgomery Day School. They are determined to get a victory to make up for the last time, when they were defeated 7 to 0.

GIRLS!

The "Our Systematic Girls Club" met Monday for its first meeting. Helen J. Butler presided and the meeting considered matters of vital importance. Girls who wish to join may attend any of the meetings, which are held at 229 Essex Avenue, Narberth, Pa., on Fridays from 4.00 to 4.30 o'clock. You may also come on any other day to the same address from 3.30 o'clock to 5.15 o'clock.

INTERESTING BANK NOTES.

During the past week, the Marion Title and Trust Company has been issuing an interesting five-dollar note over the Narberth counter. The note is by the Liberty National Bank of New York, and bears the signature of Carroll Downes, former Burgess and School Director of Narberth. Many residents wish to keep a specimen of the bill as a souvenir, but five-dollar bills are hard things to keep nowadays—very hard.

Dinner-Dance Was Successful

Activities of Community Club Reported

Mirth and melody were present at the Community Club dinner-dance last Wednesday evening, and it should be recorded at the very start that in every department it was a brilliant success and an affair that the hospitality committee may well be proud of.

While the dinner was in progress the guests were most agreeably entertained by members of the club's juvenile dancing class and their able teacher, Miss Marjorie Carter. That this class turns out real talent was evinced by the more than hearty reception the performers received. The speaker's chair was ably filled by Colonel Jackson, whose address on the necessity of having the Sesqui-Centennial was intensely interesting, and many who have heretofore been against this project left the hall filled with enthusiasm for it.

The music for the evening was furnished by George Gilpin and his entertainers, and a vocabulary far larger than that of the writer is needed to adequately praise the melody which filled the hall from seven o'clock until midnight and made even the serious-minded forget to go home and fix the oatmeal for breakfast or look over that contract of John Doe's. The card tables in the library were well filled and no more can be said than that "a good time was had by all."

A most entertaining program is scheduled for the meeting of the Women's Community Club to be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday.

Mrs. Van Auken will give a review of the new book, "My Garden of Memory," by Kate Douglas Wiggin. Also the Bell Telephone Company has promised to give a demonstration of the uses and abuses of the telephone. This demonstration is said to be quite amusing as well as instructive, and the members who attend this meeting will return to their homes knowing well how to reach the plumber when the pipes burst.

Mrs. Edgar Taylor will be the hostess for the afternoon.

Thursday evening, December 6, is the date set for the next big Community Club affair, which will be in the form of a card party for all members and their friends. There will be tables for bridge, pinochle and five hundred, with plenty of prizes, and refreshments such as only the ladies of the Community Club can serve. Tickets can be had for the small sum of seventy-five cents by calling Mrs. Sibley, Narberth 1221. The committee expects a large attendance, so talk it up and be there yourself.

A GREAT PRIVILEGE!

Come, fathers, for the President has given you a holiday to worship and thank God for your blessings. It is truly a holiday.

Come, mothers, and help the people return gratitude to the Lord for the good things you are preparing for this day of feasting. The early service will give you time to prepare your dinner. Come, young men and maidens, for the happiness and pleasures of your life come from the bounty God has bestowed on this nation, to which you want to be so loyal.

Come, children, for Jesus died that all who follow Him should become like you. The joys, the freedom, the play, the learning, the care and comforts that you enjoy come from the Father above.

Surely you want to join this happy throng at the Methodist Church on Thanksgiving morning, November 29th, at 10.30, to hear an inspiring sermon by the pastor of the Baptist Church, anthems by the chorus choir of the Methodist Church, and hymns of praise in which you will join heartily. Come one, come all!

TWO FIRES.

Our local fire-eaters were called out twice last Tuesday. One call was to Roberts Farm, where fire had broken out in one of the farm houses near the lower gate. Debris under the kitchen floor had caught fire. The blaze was extinguished without difficulty.

The other call was to the home of Fred McCarthy, 311 Woodside Avenue. The mattress of a porch swing stored in the cellar had caught fire, from an unknown cause, and was in danger of spreading to the woodwork nearby. This blaze, too, was quickly extinguished.

Welfare Campaign Results

Amounts Collected in District Announced

The third annual campaign of the Welfare Federation closed November 16th, with a total of 118,861 subscriptions amounting to $2,883,978, an increase of $600,000 over the amount raised last year. Although the total raised falls short by $125,000 of the amount required to meet the agency budgets, the Board of Trustees of the Federation have pledged themselves to raise this sum quietly, so that all agencies will receive the full amount needed to carry on their work in 1924.

The Main Line Division, under the leadership of Alfred M. Collins, Division Chairman, and Bruce M. Watson, Division Secretary, secured 4,230 subscriptions, amounting to $350,052.03, which represents over one hundred per cent. of the quota assigned and exceeds last year's results by sixty-five per cent. in amount, and forty-four per cent. in subscriptions. Miss Meribah Delaplaine handled the headquarters office with skill.

The report by districts is as follows:

St. Davids, Wayne and Stratford—Mr. John S. C. Harvey, chairman; Mrs. Sheldon Catlin, St. Davids; Mrs. Alan Calvert, South Wayne; Mrs. W. Allen Barr, North Wayne; Mrs. Francis Diamond, Stratford.
Devon—Mrs. Arthur V. Morton.
Berwyn—Mr. Joseph W. Sharp, Jr.
Paoli—Mr. Richard Haughton.
Bala-Cynwyd—Mr. George W. Barr.
Wynnefield—Mr. Frank M. Hardt.

A final meeting of Main Line captains was held Tuesday to discuss plans for next year's campaign before the departure of Mr. Collins on Saturday for several months' hunting in Africa. Mr. Collins stated that success was due, first, to the tireless efforts of the teams to reach every resident of their districts, and second, to a better understanding of the purpose of the Federation. Almost all were eager to contribute, and many subscriptions were received unsolicited before the workers could call.

LOUISE PORTER ARMSTRONG.

Louise Porter Armstrong, widow of the late Dr. Leon H. Armstrong, a well-known surgeon of Atlantic City, died at her home, 206 Steney Place, Narberth, on Tuesday, November 20, at 2 P. M. CONCERNING THE Y. M. C. A.

Since the publication last week of the article announcing the sale of the Y. M. C. A. building to the Merion Title and Trust Co., a number of requests have been received by the Editor for information regarding the future plans of the organizations who will be "turned out."

We hadn't heard anything about the bank's plans to evict the organizations, and an interview with one of the executives of the Trust Company showed that, as intimated in our article last week, the new owners of the building will work to the utmost to help the various civic bodies of Narberth to get what they need—a home.

There are no plans now under consideration by the company, we are told, to make changes which will necessitate the removal of the different organizations now using the building. Conditions will be as before, for a time at least.

But this cannot last indefinitely. The bank is willing to preserve the status quo until their plans are matured. That should give Narberth an ample opportunity to get her own plans into shape. It will mean prompt action, but not undue haste.

Sooner or later a building will be needed. It takes time to plan, and time to build. That will leave no superfluity of time to organize Narberth's organizations for the work. Now is the time to get things started.

ROLL CALL OF THE RED CROSS

If there is one organization which has the universal sympathy and respect of the American people it is the Red Cross; and the appeal of the President to give it universal support will not fall on deaf ears. From now until Thanksgiving Day is the time of its annual roll-call, and there should be a generous response in greatly increased membership. Upon this it relies for the funds to carry on its work. Thus to have a share in that work is, as the President says, a privilege.

Wherever there is need the Red Cross is at hand to serve humanity. On its work in the war there is no occasion to dwell. It strove unrelentingly to provide for the welfare of our naval and military forces, to care for the wounded and dying, and to aid the civilian population in the devastated areas. Nor are its achievements in peace less noteworthy. The most conspicuous recent instance was offered by the Japanese earthquake. But for the promptness with which it acted relief would have been greatly delayed. The Red Cross is the one institution which in such an emergency is able to collect and distribute without red tape or friction the gifts of the people.

One secret of its efficiency is that it never seeks to usurp functions or to interfere with other organizations; nor does it encroach upon governmental prerogatives. Thus it carries on its great work with the approval of all. Let the American people this year show more than even their complete confidence in an institution with every claim to it.

"This fellow Skinner tried to tell me that he had the same automobile for five years, and has never paid a cent for repairs on it," said the fat man. "Do you believe that?" "I do," said the thin man, sadly. "I'm the man who did his repair work."

NARBERTH

O little Town on the "Main Line,"
How long for thee must I repine?
The hours apart are twice as long!
The hours with thee are but a song!In Spring I watched the willow trees;
The leaflets I was sure would freeze.
They hurried so to greet our eyes,
In spite of cold and threatening skies.The crocuses and daffodils!
The violets on the neighboring hills!
The gleaming sun, when first it came!
(It just is nowhere else the same.)The children! How they romped about!
I still can hear their boisterous shouts!
'Twas just the town for childish feet
To race each other down the street.I'll ne'er forget those moonlight nights.
A sapphire sky with diamond lights!
A wondrous moon whose silvery veil
Clung close to every hill and dale.August with her relentless sun,
Did not a bit abate the fun!For trees and trees and then some more
Just made the coolest world out-door.Then Autumn, like a warrior, came!
Her sword she waved and knew no shame!With blood she tipped this golden world
And to rebukes defiance hurled.Late afternoons, the sun sank down
With purple mists o'er her orange gown;While threads of smoke from burning brush
Hung on the air—a gentle "hush."When Winter came, she calmly stayed,
And o'er this town she gently laid
A blanket white with crystals sewn
To cuddle seedlings in the loam.So that is why I love this town.
"Diminutive!" some men may frown!
But as for me—the more I roam
I wish Narberth might be my home.

Evelyn M. Adelman.

FOOTBALL

The bleachers all around were packed.
A cheer—the boys came on the field,
For in spirit not one boy lacked,
A strong eleven did they yield.L. M.'s eleven, they fought hard.
The cheering boys set forth a yell.
They were drawing the winning card,
Perhaps a touchdown. Who can tell?The other team, their line was near;
Must it be that on us they'd score?
Not if our boys knew it, no fear,
And then their goal was reached no more.The Radnor game we've yet to see.
Come, Merion, let's keep our name.
Still undefeated will we be,
For Radnor won't destroy our fame.Shelah M. Foster,
Lower Merion pupil residing in Narberth.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS.

The Girl Scout Home Bake given on Saturday, November 17, was a great success. Part of this money will be given to the Welfare Federation and the rest will be put in the Scout treasury.

The Narberth Girl Scout Troop is growing so rapidly that it is necessary to form a new troop.

Miss Nichols, a Scout Captain from the Main Line, entertained the Girl Scouts of Narberth Tuesday evening at Scout meeting. She told us about other Scout Troops and new Scout work. Our troop is considered the largest along the Main Line and has a record for the best and most regular attendance.

BOROUGH OF NARBERTH,
H. W. BROWN,
Chairman.

GETTING AND GIVING.

American life is thoroughly aroused to the need of getting. The country resounds with incitements to production and efficiency, and everybody is calling for "Go Getters."

But it is a law of life that for all getting there should be a corresponding amount of giving. That is not so popular. Yet this law is fairly well understood in business life, where people realize that if they are to get rewards, they must give correspondingly good service.

This law is not so well understood in community life. We give taxes to be sure, in return for certain municipal services. But we get many things not paid for by those taxes. We get the benefit of all the unpaid service of the people who went before us, all the faithful effort of our business men to meet the needs of the community, all the public spirit of unselfish community workers. And then many of us sit back and fail to realize the necessity of giving anything in return for this getting.

To carry out the Get and Give spirit in Narberth at least four principles should be observed:

1. Back up the home town business men. They are doing their best to serve you.
2. Join one or more of our civic organizations, and help carry on the good work for your home town, to which others have devoted and are now giving so much effort.
3. Make some personal addition to the neatness and beauty of your town by improving your home place.
4. Help support "Our Town," which is working in every issue to get good things for your community.

THE AUTOMOBILE AGE.

The younger crowd cannot conceive what the community was before the days of automobiles. The remarks of two youngsters will illustrate.

One was a smallish girl who was telling the story of the birth of Christ in a manger.

"You see," she said, "there was no room in any of the hotels the night He was born. So they had to go to a garage, and He was born in a garage."

The other youngster referred to was a small boy whose family always made all movements by automobile. Even if they were going but a short distance, Father always got out with his car, and they would all bundle in.

This boy noticed one day that a family in the neighborhood had a garage but there was no car in it. He pondered long over this phenomenon.

"Don't you keep any car in that garage?" he asked the lady one day. "No, we decided we would get along without any auto this season," was the reply.

"Well, what do you do when you want to go anywhere?" was the youngster's puzzled reply. "Oh, we just walk on our two legs," laughed the lady.

This was too much for that boy. It was a phase of existence he had never imagined. He departed plunged in deep thought, trying to reconcile his mind to new conditions of living.

It is a mighty fine thing for any family to own an automobile. But if the result of such ownership is that people become unable to walk, and can't get around their home towns except by gasoline power, the results are not at all advantageous.

THANKSGIVING OPEN HOUSE

Thanksgiving at the Bala Club will be celebrated by open house for members and guests. There will be an old-fashioned Quaker at twelve. From six to nine, there will be a dinner-dance.

TRIPLE TIE IN BOWLING LEAGUE.

By winning two games from the Lutherans on Friday night, November 16th, the Methodists created a triple tie in the Inter-Church Bowling League. This unusual condition illustrates how evenly matched the teams are. The Baptist team, although last in team standing, is a strong combination and will surely be heard from before the end of the season.

While the scores in last Friday night's games were not as high as those of some previous nights, the games were hotly contested from start to finish.

The score was as follows:

BETTER TYPE OF LIGHTHOUSE AIDS BIRD CONSERVATION.

Those engaged in bird conservation work in the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture have been greatly interested in the decrease during the last 20 years in bird mortality formerly due to the fixed white lights used in lighthouses. Along the Atlantic coast, in particular, there has been a tendency to replace these fixed lights, which attract large numbers of birds to their destruction, with intermittently flashing lights, which do not seem to have the same disastrous effect.

At Fire Island Light, for example, some years ago it was common to see a great number of dead birds after a windy or stormy night, as under such conditions birds become confused and either fly head-on into the light or circle round and round it until exhausted. Since an intermittent flash type of light has been installed at Fire Island the bird deaths have been greatly reduced.

The British Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, according to information received by the Biological Survey, is providing resting places for birds on the lighthouses about the British Isles, many of which are still of the fixed white-light type. Four lighthouses have already been equipped with rests and perches. The first of such rests was tried out on the Terschelling Light, and it at once reduced the destruction of birds from nearly a thousand a night to less than that number a season.

COMMUNITY OF INTERESTS

When you see a city in which the public utility companies are modern, progressive and prosperous, you may be sure that the city is modern, progressive and prosperous. The utilities naturally respond to liberal and broad-minded treatment, and in turn apply their great forces to advancing the city's growth and strength. This is real partnership. Utility service today enters so intimately into the affairs of almost every household, that anything which hurts the utilities is bound to hurt the community.

THE NOVEMBER FLOOD OF BOOKS AT THE LIBRARY.

A veritable deluge of new books exists at the Community Library—books for the children in observance of "Book Week" and books for adults in honor of the approach of winter. All the favorite authors of older readers are represented either by a new book, as Brand Whitlock's "J. Hardin and Son," or by a reprint, as Sabatini's "Banner of the Bull." The latter fortunately, unlike some of his others, is worth reprinting. Emily Post's "Etiquette," had the Library's funds allowed, would have been on the shelves last winter—but nothing is lost, as etiquette is always popular. "Wilson's Case for the League" is timely, and this authoritative presentation of his arguments is of value to any student of the present international situation.

The list follows:

Non-Fiction.

Ochesterton, G. K.—Fiction vs. Fads.
Foley, Hamilton—Wilson's Case for the League of Nations.
Hall, G. Stanley—Life and Confessions of a Psychologist.
Post, Emily—Etiquette.

Fiction.

Birmingham, G. A.—Found Money.
Black, Alexander—Jo Ellen.
Connor, Ralph—Gaspards of Pine Croft.
Davey, Norman—Pilgrim of a Smile.
Diver, Maud—Candles in the Wind.
Farnol, Jeffery—Sir John Deering.
Hawes, C. B.—Dark Frigate.
Hough, Emerson—Magnificent Adventure.
Johnston, Mary—Croatan.
King, Basil—Happy Isles.
Kyne, Peter B.—Never the Twain Shall Meet.
Locke, W. J.—Lengthened Shadows.
Richmond, Grace S.—Rufus.
Ruck, Berta—Dancing Star.
Sabatini, Raphael—Banner of the Bull.
Smith, J. C.—Araminta.
Thurston, E. Temple—May Eve.
Tuttle, Margaretta—Feet of Clay.
Walpole, Hugh—Jeremy and Hamlet.
Wells, Carolyn—Wheels Within Wheels.
Whitlock, Brand—J. Hardin and Son.
Wodehouse, P. B.—Jeeves.

CAMPAIGN CONTINUES.

The annual drive for membership of the American Red Cross is still going on and continues until November 29th. Up to date, $1,728.00 has been turned in. We are most anxious that it shall be as good if not better than last year. If you have not been approached a subscription can be received at the Bryn Mawr Memorial Building, and a receipt and button will be sent to you.

LOWER MERION HIGH

Lower Merion High School ends its football season tomorrow with its annual game with Radnor High, and upon the outcome of this game depends the fact as to whether Lower Merion will call its season a successful one or not. If the Maroon and White loses its season will be marked down as a dismal failure in spite of the wonderful scoring record which it has run up on previous opponents as great rivalry exists between the two schools.

A great turnout is expected for the game. Lower Merion has been practicing special songs and cheers, under the guidance of Cheer Leader Bud Malin for the last six weeks, and Radnor has made similar preparations. A crowd of nearly 4,000 is anticipated by the Lower Merion authorities, and 3,000 of these will be taken care of in specially constructed reserve grandstand seats.

At the assembly exercises of Tuesday this week Eugene Nugent was chairman in charge. A talk on "The Topics of the Week" was given by Marcus Golding. The rest of the time of the assembly was given over to a rehearsal of football cheers and songs for the Radnor game on Saturday.

The first basketball practice of the season was held in the gym Tuesday afternoon of this week. Call for candidates was issued last week and some fifty men signed up for the squad.

Practices for the present are being held under the direction of Mr. McGrath. At the end of the football season Mr. Frank Forstburg, physical training instructor, and coach of the football team, will take charge of the dribblers.

Tuesday afternoon a light practice was held. There was no scrimmage, passing only being done.

The Senior Class Dramatic Society met last week and organized. The following were the officers elected: President, Eugene Nugent, Treasurer, Frieda Senn, and Secretary, Dorothy Cross. Sarah Brooke, Anne Hart and Russell Byrnes were elected to the Advisory Board.

The Dramatic Society is now making plans for a plan which it hopes to give before the Christmas holidays.

Because the authorities at Lower Merion High will not sign a statement declaring that they have tried to obtain a game with the Norristown High football team and that they would be willing to schedule such a game this year if still possible, the suburban football championship may be awarded to Norristown High instead of Lower Merion.

There has been considerable discussion about a Norristown-Lower Merion game during the last few weeks, since it became evident that these two schools would be the leaders for the suburban football title. Authorities at Lower Merion stated that they had offered a place on the Lower Merion schedule to Norristown three times but received no reply to their offers; Norristown officials claim that they had tried to get games with Lower Merion but have been refused.

In an endeavor to settle the argument, a member of the Board which decides which school has the best right to the suburban championship asked Lower Merion to sign a statement affirming its claims about Norristown in black and white. This the Lower Merion official who was approached refused to do, it is said. The Board may become peeved at his action and declare that what influence he had on the board would be used to give the championship to Norristown. As a result Lower Merion may lose the Brown Alumni Association Cup which is given to the suburban winner.

MILES OF BELL TELEPHONE WIRE ADDED IN PENNSYLVANIA 1919-1923

Half a Million Miles

To the moon and back again with enough left over to wrap around the earth.

That's how much new wire is being added to the Bell System in Pennsylvania this year.

And in 1924 we expect to add 630,000 miles.

New buildings are being constructed, twenty-two of them, thirty large additions to other buildings, ten millions of dollars' worth of new switchboards and Central Office equipment, seventy-six thousand new telephones.

Factories are working day and night, train after train is hauling the equipment.

To what end?—That the telephone system in this state may keep pace with the needs of the people.
